Brethren,

Brethren, I am happy to say that April has seen new Brothers enter the Lodge with ongoing ritual work and mentoring for those working their way to the degree of Master Mason. We also continue to get more men seeking light coming to the Lodge. This is a great sign.

Some other good news, as I write this work on the roof repair is well underway and should be completed shortly. Thank you to all who have contributed to working through this and the many generous donations.

May's Stated Communication will be our "Lodge Shirt Night" for all attending, kicking off what I hope will be a well-received transition to more casual attire for the warmer months. The program for the night will be a presentation on the Knights Templar and Templar Freemasonry with a presentation of the Flag by members of the Virginia Beach Commandery.

I look forward to seeing all at our May Stated Communication and also around the Lodge to welcome our new Brothers and assist them in their Masonic journey!

Sincerely & Fraternaly,
Zach Sch aard
